OUR VISION

We, at Holy Trinity, Guildwood are a Caring, Open-Hearted Community who Dream, Pray and Work with Jesus for a Loving, Equitable and Peaceful World.

Welcome to Holy Trinity, Guildwood

At Holy Trinity, Guildwood, we welcome all who come to worship with us. Though we are people of diverse background, lifestyle, and opinion, we are one in our desire to follow Jesus Christ. We seek to live as diversity in unity, offering a community in which we can all grow together as one Body: God's Church. We hope the order of service will help you find your way, but feel free to ask your neighbour for help. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us.

Holy Communion: All are welcome in this church and at this altar. All baptized persons, including children, are invited to receive the bread at Christ's table. Those not receiving communion may wish to receive a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate you are not receiving communion. The ancient teaching is that the whole Christ is received even if one receives only the consecrated bread. Communion is received standing. Please do not kneel at the altar rail. Please come forward (should you wish) to the communion station(s), at the indication of the sides person (usher).

Children are always welcome at Holy Trinity - On Sundays, children are invited to take part in the wonderful age-appropriate activities offered by Church School downstairs in the church hall during the Liturgy of the Word, after which they return upstairs to join in the Celebration of the Eucharist. Parents are always welcome to join their children for some or all of the time downstairs. For more information, contact Denise Byard – Lay Pastoral Associate at 416-261-9503 or denise@trinityguildwood.org. Children are always welcome to join in the fun and adventure of growing in Christ.

As you are invited to stand or sit,
please feel free to do as best fits your health, comfort and circumstances.

Please silence your cell phones.

Welcome

Land Acknowledgment

Today we honor and acknowledge that this land and locality are on the historical traditional lands of the Indigenous Peoples of what we call Turtle Island and what is commonly called North America.

We acknowledge the leadership of Indigenous Elders, who continue to teach us about what it means to live in a balanced and good way with all creation. May our time of worship together be blessed, as we give respect to the First Peoples of this land and seek to live in right relationship with ourselves, Creator, and one another.

We pray that the Spirit will lead us into all truth, into repentance for the wrongs of the past and into true reconciliation with our Indigenous brothers and sisters that we may be partners in healing and peace, to the glory and thanksgiving of God our Creator.

Children’s Transition – Every Morning is Easter Morning

WRIGHTSONG

Refrain:

Ev'ry morning is Easter morning
from now on!
Ev'ry day's resurrection day,
the past is over and gone!

Goodbye guilt, goodbye fear,
good riddance!
Hello Lord, Hello sun!
I am one of the Easter People!
My new life has begun!

Collect of the Day The presider prays standing at the altar

The Proclamation of the Word please sit for the readings

First Reading

Acts 11:1-18

A Reading from the Book of Acts

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, "Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?" Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me. As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.' But I replied, 'By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.' But a second time the voice answered from heaven, 'What God has made clean, you must not call profane.' This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven. At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were. The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.' And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?" When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, "Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life."

Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-6

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also, he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life."

The Holy Gospel

John 13:31-35

Reader The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now, I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Our Response to the Word

Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action: Media and Reconciliation

86. We call upon Canadian journalism programs and media schools to require education for all students on the history of Aboriginal peoples, including the history and legacy of residential schools, the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, Treaties and Aboriginal rights, Indigenous law, and Aboriginal–Crown relations.

Sports and Reconciliation

87. We call upon all levels of government, in collaboration with Aboriginal peoples, sports halls of fame, and other relevant organizations, to provide public education that tells the national story of Aboriginal athletes in history.

88. We call upon all levels of government to take action to ensure long-term Aboriginal athlete development and growth, and continued support for the North American Indigenous Games, including funding to host the games and for provincial and territorial team preparation and travel.

89. We call upon the federal government to amend the Physical Activity and Sport Act to support reconciliation by ensuring that policies to promote physical activity as a fundamental element of health and well-being, reduce barriers to sports participation, increase the pursuit of excellence in sport, and build capacity in the Canadian sport system, are inclusive of Aboriginal peoples

Prayers of the People

*Please feel free to sit, kneel, or stand - however you are most comfortable to pray.
Prayers are offered for the church, all in authority, the world,
the local community, those in need, and the departed.*

You, O God, make all things new in the resurrection of your Son.
We ask you to give us a new heart, as we bring our prayers to you,
saying, "Hear us, Gracious God."

This Easter, may we love in a new way.
May our love be tender and thoughtful, giving life and hope to others.

Hear us, Gracious God.

This Easter, may we put our faith into action for all the world to see,
in the inclusive and generous way we love one another.

Hear us, Gracious God.

This Easter, may all who find it hard to love have a new feeling of courage and a new sense of how loved they are.

Hear us, Gracious God.

This Easter, as God gives us heart, may we give new heart to each other,
to live life with hope.

Hear us, Gracious God.

We pray for all who have died...

May they enter into God's own home, where there is no more mourning or sadness.

Hear us, Gracious God.

In all our prayers we praise you, O Lord.

May we glorify you by living lives of love, as we say,

Amen.

Confession and Absolution

*Confession lets us set down the heavy things we carry with us,
Putting us in right relationship with one another and with God.*

The Peace please stand

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Invitation to Spiritual Communion

Presider Dear Friends,
we have gathered as the body of Christ,
some in person, others online and not able to receive
the sacrament at this time.
I invite you all to join me and the whole church
in a prayer of spiritual communion as we receive Christ,
who is present in this Sacrament of the Altar.

Let us pray
All Lord Christ, present in the Sacrament of the Altar and in your people, gathered in Spirit, come and abide in my heart in the fullness of your strength; be my wisdom and guide me in right pathways; transform my life and actions that they may reflect the image of your holiness; and, by the power of your liberating love, overthrow all that threatens or disrupts the justice and truth of the reign of God.
In your name I pray. Amen.

Lamb of God #747

Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us.
Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.
Jesus, redeemer, redeemer of the world,
Give us your peace, give us your peace.
