Welcome to Holy Trinity, Guildwood

At Holy Trinity, Guildwood, we welcome all who come to worship with us. Though we are people of diverse background, lifestyle, and opinion, we are one in our desire to follow Jesus Christ. We seek to live as diversity in unity, offering a community in which we can all grow together as one Body: God's Church. We hope the order of service will help you find your way, but feel free to ask your neighbour for help. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us.

Holy Communion: All are welcome in this church and at this altar. All baptized persons, including children, are invited to receive the bread and wine at Christ's table. Those not receiving communion may wish to receive a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate you are not receiving communion. The Anglican Church supports the ancient use of the common cup. Those receiving the chalice are asked to assist the chalice bearer by grasping the cup at the base and guiding the cup to their lips. For health purposes the practice of intinction, dipping the bread into the wine, is discouraged. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please feel free to receive the bread only. Simply cross your hands over your chest when the chalice bearer passes by to indicate you do not wish the wine. The ancient teaching is that the whole Christ is received whether one receives only the consecrated bread or both bread and wine. Please come forward (should you wish) to the altar rail, at the indication of the sides person (usher) to fill the altar rail from the outside in. Those with mobility concerns may also receive Holy Communion while remaining in place, please notify a sides person (usher).

Children are always welcome to join in the fun and adventure of growing in Christ at Holy Trinity, Guildwood. For more information, contact Denise Byard – Missional Outreach and Discipleship – Lay Pastoral Associate at 416-527-9104 or denise@trinityguildwood.org

As you are invited to stand or sit, please feel free to do as best fits your health, comfort and circumstances.

Please silence your cell phones.

The Gathering of the Community

Land Acknowledgment

Today we honour and acknowledge that this land and locality are on the historical traditional lands of the Indigenous Peoples of what we call Turtle Island and what is commonly called North America.

We acknowledge the leadership of Indigenous Elders, who continue to teach us about what it means to live in a balanced and good way with all creation. May our time of worship together be blessed, as we give respect to the First Peoples of this land and seek to live in right relationship with ourselves, Creator, and one another.

We pray that the Spirit will lead us into all truth, into repentance for the wrongs of the past and into true reconciliation with our Indigenous brothers and sisters that we may be partners in healing and peace, to the glory and thanksgiving of God our Creator. (National Indigenous Archbishop Chris Harper)

Presider Welcome in the name of Christ.

This is the night
that Christ the Lamb of God
gave himself into the hands of those who would slay him.

This is the night
that Christ gathered with his disciples in the upper room.

This is the night
that Christ took a towel and washed the disciples' feet, giving us an example that we should love and serve others
as he has loved and served us.

This is the night
that Christ our God gave us this holy feast,
that we who eat this bread
and drink this cup
may here proclaim his Holy Sacrifice and be partakers of his resurrection, and at the last day may reign with him in heaven.

Collect

Please remain standing

Presider O God,
your Son Jesus Christ
has left to us this meal of bread and wine
in which we share his body and his blood.
May we who celebrate this sign of his great love
show in our lives the fruits of his redemption;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

The First Passover - by Rachael Boles

(based on Exodus 12:1-14)

Cast: Moses (Narrator), Zipporah, her young neighbour Naomi

Moses The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household.

Naomi Explain it to me again, what we have to do for this special meal.

Zipporah We're having lamb.

Naomi A leg of lamb, you mean, or a shoulder?

Zipporah No, no, a whole lamb.

Naomi Every family has to have a lamb? There'll be lots left over.

Zipporah That's why we've invited you, Naomi, so our two families can share the meal and share the cost.

Naomi My mother says they've got a very good buy on grade 'B' lamb at the market this week.

Zipporah Not good enough. The lamb has to be grade 'A' perfect: twelve months old and no blemishes. It can be from the sheep or the goats, but it has to be absolutely perfect.

Naomi Are you going to make your lamb stew with lentils, Zipporah?

Zipporah We have to roast the lamb. Moses gave us special instructions. Listen!

Moses You shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and entrails.

Naomi With its entrails? I don't like the sound of that at all. Couldn't everyone just bring what they like?

Zipporah It wouldn't be the same. This is a ritual meal, you see.

Naomi Well, if we have to eat lamb, my mother has a very good recipe that her mother used to....

Zipporah We all have to cook it the same way. And if there's any left over, we burn it. I'm sorry it can't be a leisurely meal – we have to eat in a hurry. Oh, and when you come over, make sure you're dressed for a journey. Tell your mother.

Naomi Dressed for a journey? Will somebody please tell me what's going on here?

Zipporah Naomi, I'm trying to tell you. It's the final plague. There's going to be killing. The angel of death is going to come down on the whole land of Egypt, and the firstborn will be taken.

Naomi You mean they'll die?

Zipporah They'll die.

Naomi My brother Reuben? And your Joshua?

Zipporah No, listen to me, Naomi! This is the real reason for the lamb. After it's been slaughtered, we are to take some of the blood and smear it on the doorposts and the lintel of the house where we'll eat the meal. It will be a sign. The angel of death will not visit the houses where there is blood on the doorposts.

Naomi Oh, Zipporah, I'm frightened. What will Pharaoh do to us when this terrible plague strikes the Egyptians?

Zipporah Don't be frightened, Naomi. Moses says that Pharaoh will let us go back to our own country, the country God promised to our ancestors. We won't be slaves any longer. We shall be free.

Naomi We have always been slaves. My father says our people have been slaves for more than four hundred years.

Zipporah Your children will not be slaves! Trust me, Naomi, as I trust our leader Moses, and as Moses trusts God – the great I AM. This time a year from now, we will have great feast with a roast lamb....

Naomi A grade 'A' lamb, for sure!

Zipporah For sure! And the lamb will remind us of our slavery and our salvation: we'll remember how the angel of death saw the blood of the lamb and passed over us without harming any in the house.

Naomi A Feast of Passover!

Zipporah A Feast of Passover – yes! And we'll keep it year after year.

Moses And when your children ask you, 'What do you mean by this observance?' you shall say, 'It is the passover sacrifice to the LORD, for he passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt, when he struck down the Egyptians but spared our houses.'

Zipporah Everything will be fine, you'll see. Tell your mother.

Second Reading:

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason, he said, "Not all of you are clean." After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord and you are right, for that is what I am. So, if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them." Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now, I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. Then Jesus said to them, 'You will all become deserters because of me this night; for it is written, "I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered." But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.' Peter said to him, 'Though all become deserters because of you, I will never desert you.' Jesus said to him, 'Truly I tell you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times.' Peter said to him, 'Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you.' And so said all the disciples. Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, 'Sit here while I go over there and pray.' He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee and began to be grieved and agitated. Then he said to them, 'I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and stay awake with me.' And going a little farther, he threw himself on the ground and prayed, 'My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet not what I want but what you want.' Then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, 'So, could you not stay awake with me one hour? Stay awake and pray that you may not come into the time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.' Again, he went away for the second time and prayed, 'My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done.' Again, he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. So, leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words. Then he came to the disciples and said to them, 'Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? See, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Get up, let us be going. See, my betrayer is at hand.'
