Welcome to Holy Trinity, Guildwood

At Holy Trinity, Guildwood, we welcome all who come to worship with us. Though we are people of diverse background, lifestyle, and opinion, we are one in our desire to follow Jesus Christ. We seek to live as diversity in unity, offering a community in which we can all grow together as one Body: God's Church. We hope the order of service will help you find your way, but feel free to ask your neighbour for help. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us.

Holy Communion: All are welcome in this church and at this altar. All baptized persons, including children, are invited to receive the bread and wine at Christ's table. Those not receiving communion may wish to receive a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate you are not receiving communion. The Anglican Church supports the ancient use of the common cup. Those receiving the chalice are asked to assist the chalice bearer by grasping the cup at the base and guiding the cup to their lips. For health purposes the practice of intinction, dipping the bread into the wine, is discouraged. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please feel free to receive the bread only. Simply cross your hands over your chest when the chalice bearer passes by to indicate you do not wish the wine. The ancient teaching is that the whole Christ is received whether one receives only the consecrated bread or both bread and wine. Please come forward (should you wish) to the altar rail, at the indication of the sides person (usher) to fill the altar rail from the outside in. Those with mobility concerns may also receive Holy Communion while remaining in place, please notify a sides person (usher).

Children are always welcome at Holy Trinity - On Sundays, children are invited to take part in the wonderful age-appropriate activities offered by Church School downstairs in the church hall during the Liturgy of the Word, after which they return upstairs to join in the Celebration of the Eucharist. Parents are always welcome to join their children for some or all of the time downstairs For more information contact Melanie McLeod, Intergenerational Coordinator, at 416-261-9503 or melanie.mcleod777@outlook.com. Children are always welcome to join in the fun and adventure of growing in Christ.

As you are invited to stand or sit, please feel free to do as best fits your health, comfort, and circumstances.

Please silence your cell phones

Land Acknowledgment

Lay Assistant Today we honour and acknowledge that this land and locality are on the historical traditional lands of the Indigenous Peoples of what we call Turtle Island and what is commonly called North America.

We acknowledge the leadership of Indigenous Elders, who continue to teach us about what it means to live in a balanced and good way with all creation. May our time of worship together be blessed, as we give respect to the First Peoples of this land and seek to live in right relationship with ourselves, Creator, and one another.

We pray that the Spirit will lead us into all truth, into repentance for the wrongs of the past and into true reconciliation with our Indigenous brothers and sisters that we may be partners in healing and peace, to the glory and thanksgiving of God our Creator.

(National Indigenous Archbishop Chris Harper)

Greeting Please stand

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People And also with you

Presider Almighty God,
All to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen

The Proclamation of the Word please be seated for the readings

First Reading

Wisdom 3:1-9

A reading from the Wisdom of Solomon

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster and their going from us to be their destruction, but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

Reader Listen for the leading of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24 – We Long to See Your Face please stand.

1. Instrumental, 2. Cantor, 3. Congregation

Refrain I

O God, this is the peo-ple that longs to see your face. O

God, this is the peo-ple that longs to see your face.

Verse 1

All the earth is yours, O God, the world and those who dwell on it.
You have founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.

Verse 2

Who can ascend your mountain, God? Or who may stand in this holy place?
Those whose hands are sinless, hearts are clean, and desire not the vanity of earth.

Verse 3

They shall receive your blessing, God, their Savior shall reward them.
Such is the face that seeks for you, that seeks your face, O God of Jacob.

Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-6a

A reading from the Book of Revelation

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

The Holy Gospel

John 11:32-44

Reader The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

The Prayers of the People

Please feel free to sit or kneel - however you are most comfortable to pray.

Prayers are offered for the church, all in authority, the world, the local community, those in need, and the departed.

Our prayers today join us, who are the living saints, with all the saints who have gone before us into God's presence.

We recall the saints we are named after,
and we recall the inspirational figures in our lives – saints living and dead.

Holy God, make us holy.

We pray for the church . . .

As we celebrate our 63rd year as a parish family, we give thanks to God for the mystery of who we are – part of the communion of saints, that spans heaven and earth.

Holy God, make us holy.

We give thanks for the generosity and commitment of the Saints of Holy Trinity, Guildwood, and pray for God's blessing upon our "Giving Our Thanks and Praise" campaign.

Holy God, make us holy

We pray for our world, with all its cares and needs.

Give to all the nations an awareness of the unity of the human family.

We pray for the health of our planet....

Teach us to use your creation for your greater praise,
that all may share the good things you provide.

We give thanks for prayers answered for ....
We pray to you for those in need, for the sick and the lonely, for the hurt and the frightened, and those who live without hope.
For those who have asked for our prayers.
For any others known to you....
For all enduring the ups and downs of life;
may they be given courage and hope.
Holy God, make us holy.

The saints in heaven pray with us. They strengthen us as we pray quietly for ourselves, for each other . . . for the world.
We pray for those who have died ...
And any others known to you ....
As a communion of saints, we pray that our lives bear fruit for the good of all.
Holy God, make us holy.

God of holiness,
we thank you for giving the saints the power of your grace
so that they were enabled to use their gifts in great ways.
May their prayers encourage each of us to find our own way of holiness.
We pray this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Confession lets us set down the heavy things we carry with us, putting us in right relationship with one another and with God.

Lay Assistant Dear friends in Christ,
God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
God welcomes us sinners
and invites us to God's table.
Let us confess our sins,
Confident in God's forgiveness. [silence]

All O God, you have given us many people, women, men, and children, to support us,
care for us, and pray for us.
In them we see you.

Forgive us when we forget that all who belong to you are your saints.
Teach us to see you in everyone we meet,
and help us to reflect your love in all we do. Amen.

Absolution

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Peace

We thank you, O God, for deep and lasting relationships that give without counting the cost.

We thank you for that great commandment to love you with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength, and our neighbour as ourselves.

We thank you this day for prophets and apostles,
women, men, and children
who declare the good news of your love.

We thank you for our own families and mentors and friends, and for Jesus and everyone whose lives have helped shape us in our faith, and taught us your way of peace. Amen

Cross your arms to receive a blessing instead.

Communion can be brought to you if needed: just ask a sidesperson.

Communion Hymn – Jesus in The Morning

Verse 1 & 5

Jesus, Jesus,
Jesus in the morning, Jesus in the
noontime;
Jesus, Jesus,
Jesus when the sun goes down!

Verse 2.

Praise him, Praise him,
Praise him in the morning, Praise him
in the noontime;
Praise him, Praise him,
Praise him when the sun goes down

Verse 3.

Love him, Love him,
Love him in the morning, Love him in
the noontime;
Love him, Love him,
Love him when the sun goes down!

Verse 4.

Serve him, Serve him,
Serve him in the morning, Serve him in
the noontime;
Serve him, Serve him,
Serve him when the sun goes down!

Dear Guest/Visitor:

Thank you for worshipping with us today; you have enriched our community, and we hope the service held meaning and beauty for you. If you will be returning to a distant home, we wish you the Lord's grace and a safe journey. However, if you live anywhere near us, and you are not an involved member of a faith community and might be seeking one, we invite you to return here any Sunday so that we may continue to worship with and respond to you. Please visit us on the web at www.trinityguildwood.org and to take one of our welcome brochures to learn more about opportunities for personal spiritual growth and service to others.

Cast the Net Diocese of Toronto Vision

Go forth, followers of Jesus, inspired by the Holy Spirit, serve the world God loves!

- We are disciples of Jesus Christ, whose Good News is the joy and challenge at the heart of our common life.
- We are renewed daily in our spiritual lives and share our faith with others.
- We seek justice for all, walk alongside those in need, and respond with loving service and prophetic advocacy.
- We support and encourage faithful and fruitful ministry by all who serve the life of the church.
- We live and work as the Body of Christ, each member connected to the whole, and each valued for their unique gifts.
