Welcome to Holy Trinity, Guildwood

At Holy Trinity, Guildwood, we welcome all who come to worship with us. Though we are people of diverse background, lifestyle, and opinion, we are one in our desire to follow Jesus Christ. We seek to live as diversity in unity, offering a community in which we can all grow together as one Body: God's Church. We hope the order of service will help you find your way, but feel free to ask your neighbour for help. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us.

Holy Communion: All are welcome in this church and at this altar. All baptized persons, including children, are invited to receive the bread and wine at Christ's table. Those not receiving communion may wish to receive a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate you are not receiving communion. The Anglican Church supports the ancient use of the common cup. Those receiving the chalice are asked to assist the chalice bearer by grasping the cup at the base and guiding the cup to their lips. For health purposes the practice of intinction, dipping the bread into the wine, is discouraged. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please feel free to receive the bread only. Simply cross your hands over your chest when the chalice bearer passes by to indicate you do not wish the wine. The ancient teaching is that the whole Christ is received whether one receives only the consecrated bread or both bread and wine. Please come forward (should you wish) to the altar rail, at the indication of the sides person (usher) to fill the altar rail from the outside in. Those with mobility concerns may also receive Holy Communion while remaining in place, please notify a sides person (usher).

Children are always welcome at Holy Trinity - On Sundays, children are invited to take part in the wonderful age-appropriate activities offered by Church School downstairs in the church hall during the Liturgy of the Word, after which they return upstairs to join in the Celebration of the Eucharist. Parents are always welcome to join their children for some or all of the time downstairs. For more information contact Melanie McLeod, Family Ministry Coordinator, at 416-261-9503 or melanie.mcleod777@outlook.com. Children are always welcome to join in the fun and adventure of growing in Christ.

As you are invited to stand or sit, please feel free to do as best fits your health, comfort, and circumstances.

Please silence your cell phones

Land Acknowledgment

Lay Assistant Today we honour and acknowledge that this land and locality are on the historical traditional lands of the Indigenous Peoples of what we call Turtle Island and what is commonly called North America.

We acknowledge the leadership of Indigenous Elders, who continue to teach us about what it means to live in a balanced and good way with all creation. May our time of worship together be blessed, as we give respect to the First Peoples of this land and seek to live in right relationship with ourselves, Creator, and one another.

We pray that the Spirit will lead us into all truth, into repentance for the wrongs of the past and into true reconciliation with our Indigenous brothers and sisters that we may be partners in healing and peace, to the glory and thanksgiving of God our Creator.

(National Indigenous Archbishop Chris Harper)

Greeting Please stand

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People And also with you.

Presider We are here to worship Almighty God, whose purposes are good;
whose power sustains the world God has made;
who loves us,
though we have failed to walk in the way of peace;
who gave Jesus Christ for the life of the world;
who by the Holy Spirit leads us in His way.
As we give thanks for God's great works, we remember those who have lived and died in God's service and in the service of others;

we pray for all who suffer through war and are in need;
we ask for God's help and blessing that we may do God's will,
and that the whole world may live in peace. Amen

The Proclamation of the Word please be seated for the readings

First Reading

Wisdom 3:1-9

A reading from the Wisdom of Solomon

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster and their going from us to be their destruction, but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

Reader Listen for the leading of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 116 –Our Blessing Cup

1. Instrumental, 2. Choir, 3. Congregation

Refrain

Our bless-ing-cup is a com-mun-ion with the Blood of the Lord.

Verses

1. How can I make a return to the Lord for all God has done for me?
The cup of salvation I will take up, I will call on the name of the Lord.
2. Precious, indeed, in the sight of the Lord is the death of the faithful ones; and I am your servant, your chosen one, for you have set me free.
3. Unto your name I will offer my thanks for the debt that I owe to you.
In the presence of all who have called on your name, in the courts of the house of the Lord.

Second Reading

1 Peter 1:3-9

A Reading from the First Letter of Peter

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you, who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. In all this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. These have come so that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away, for I have come down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me but raise it up on the last day. This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day.

The Prayers of the People

Please feel free to sit, stand or kneel - however you are most comfortable to pray.

Prayers are offered for the church, all in authority, the world, the local community, those in need, and the departed.

Lay Assistant Let us pray to God, the Giver of peace, saying, "God, grant us peace."

Make your Church an instrument of peace, teaching by word and example the way of reconciliation.

Bless those who are working in areas of conflict to bring people together in the peace of God.

God, Grant us peace.

Bring peace to all the places of strife and violence...

Deliver us from greed and our love of power and position.

Fill the hearts of those in authority with the true love of peace, and the desire to work for harmony with those who seem to be their enemies.

Bless the organizations that seek peace between nations.

God, Grant us peace.

Give us peace in our homes,

with our neighbours and in our places of work.

Bless our church of Holy Trinity, Guildwood, those with us in person, and those worshipping with us online.

We give thanks for the generosity and commitment of the Saints of Holy Trinity, Guildwood and pray for God's blessing on our upcoming, 'Giving Our Thanks and Praise' Stewardship Campaign.

Inspire us with the love for others which may spread through them to heal the wider problems of the world.

God, Grant us peace.

For those who have asked for our prayers, for the sick, the shut-in, and those in need . . .

For any others known to you . . .

For all who suffer as a result of war . . .

for the injured and the disabled,

for the mentally distressed,

for those who have lost everything they had, especially refugees.

Be with those whose faith in God and humankind has been weakened or destroyed.

Restore them to the fullness of life that is in you.

Make us gracious, make us generous,

make us aware of where we can help.

God, Grant us peace.

For those who mourn their dead,

For those who have lost husband or wife, children or parents.

Lord, sustain them in their grief.

God, Grant us peace.

We pray for those who have died ...

and today we especially remember all those who lost their lives in war.

Grant mercy to those who died unprepared and unreconciled, through the love of Jesus who died by, and yet forgave, human cruelty.

Give them the peace which they were denied in their last hour.

God, Grant us peace.

We make our prayers in the name of Christ, who has left his peace to his faithful people.

God, Grant us peace.

Please stand.

Act of Remembrance

Presider In silence let us remember before God, and commend to God's keeping:
those who have died for their country in war;
those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;
and all who have lived and died in the service of humankind.

Lines of Commemoration

Presider They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
we will remember them.

All We will remember them.

The Silence

Presider Almighty and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted,
either by death or life;
Hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day;
fulfil in them the purpose of your love;
and bring us all, with them, to your eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession

Confession lets us set down the heavy things we carry with us, putting us in right relationship with one another and with God.

Presider Let us confess to God the sins and shortcomings of the world;
its pride, its selfishness, its greed;
its evil divisions and hatreds.
Let us confess our share in what is wrong, and our failure to seek and establish that peace which God wills for God's children.

Silence is kept.

Presider: Most merciful God,
All We confess that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed.
We have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us to amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be;
that we may do justly, love mercy,
and walk humbly with you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Absolution

The Peace please stand

Presider The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

We greet one another in the name of the Lord

In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

Dear Guest/Visitor:

Thank you for worshipping with us today; you have enriched our community, and we hope the service held meaning and beauty for you. If you will be returning to a distant home, we wish you the Lord's grace and a safe journey. However, if you live anywhere near us, and you are not an involved member of a faith community and might be seeking one, we invite you to return here any Sunday so that we may continue to worship with and respond to you. Please visit us on the web at www.trinityguildwood.org and take one of our welcome brochures to learn more about opportunities for personal spiritual growth and service to others.

Cast the Net Diocese of Toronto Vision

Go forth, followers of Jesus, inspired by the Holy Spirit, serve the world God loves!

- We are disciples of Jesus Christ, whose Good News is the joy and challenge at the heart of our common life.
- We are renewed daily in our spiritual lives and share our faith with others.
- We seek justice for all, walk alongside those in need, and respond with loving service and prophetic advocacy.
- We support and encourage faithful and fruitful ministry by all who serve the life of the church.
- We live and work as the Body of Christ, each member connected to the whole, and each valued for their unique gifts.
