Welcome to Holy Trinity, Guildwood

At Holy Trinity, Guildwood, we welcome all who come to worship with us. Though we are people of diverse background, lifestyle, and opinion, we are one in our desire to follow Jesus Christ. We seek to live as diversity in unity, offering a community in which we can all grow together as one Body: God's Church. We hope the order of service will help you find your way, but feel free to ask your neighbour for help. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us.

Holy Communion: All are welcome in this church and at this altar. All baptized persons, including children, are invited to receive the bread and wine at Christ's table.

Those not receiving communion may wish to receive a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate you are not receiving communion. The Anglican Church supports the ancient use of the common cup. Those receiving the chalice are asked to assist the chalice bearer by grasping the cup at the base and guiding the cup to their lips. For health purposes the practice of intinction, dipping the bread into the wine, is discouraged. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please feel free to receive the bread only. Simply cross your hands over your chest when the chalice bearer passes by to indicate you do not wish the wine. The ancient teaching is that the whole Christ is received whether one receives only the consecrated bread or both bread and wine. Please come forward (should you wish) to the altar rail, at the indication of the sides person (usher) to fill the altar rail from the outside in. Those with mobility concerns may also receive Holy Communion while remaining in place, please notify a sides person (usher).

Children are always welcome at Holy Trinity - On Sundays, children are invited to take part in the wonderful age-appropriate activities offered by Church School downstairs in the church hall during the Liturgy of the Word, after which they return upstairs to join in the Celebration of the Eucharist. Parents are always welcome to join their children for some or all of the time downstairs. For more information contact Melanie McLeod, Family Ministry Coordinator, at 416-261-9503 or melanie.mcleod777@outlook.com. Children are always welcome to join in the fun and adventure of growing in Christ.

As you are invited to stand or sit, please feel free to do as best fits your health, comfort, and circumstances.

Please silence your cell phones

Welcome

Land Acknowledgment

Lay Assistant Today we honour and acknowledge that this land and locality are on the historical traditional lands of the Indigenous Peoples of what we call Turtle Island and what is commonly called North America.

We acknowledge the leadership of Indigenous Elders, who continue to teach us about what it means to live in a balanced and good way with all creation. May our time of worship together be blessed, as we give respect to the First Peoples of this land and seek to live in right relationship with ourselves, Creator, and one another.

With deep sorrow we remember the missing and murdered children of Indian Residential Schools.

We acknowledge that this land was settled and supported very early by people of African descent, the first named African being translator Mathieu da Costa by 1604, and of the ongoing and seminal contribution made by him, and those that preceded and followed, in Canada's development.

We are grateful for those Africans who blazed trails that we continue to develop – socially, culturally, artistically, athletically, economically, militarily, educationally, and politically, for the benefit of all Canadians.

We acknowledge that African Canadians were an integral part of shaping Canadian history, and our history would not be the same without the Black experience.

We pray that the Spirit will lead us into all truth,
into repentance for the wrongs of the past and into true reconciliation with our Indigenous and African Canadian brothers and sisters, that we may be partners in healing and peace,
to the glory and thanksgiving of God our Creator.

Greeting

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

All And also with you.

Proclamation of the Word Please sit for the readings

First Reading

Isaiah 6:1-8

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Psalm 138 Please remain seated and join the choir in singing the refrain.

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of two systems. The first system has a treble staff with lyrics 'We wor - ship in your ho - ly place and' and a bass staff. Chord markings 'F', 'C', and 'F' are placed above the treble staff. The second system has a treble staff with lyrics 'praise you for your truth and grace.' and a bass staff. Chord markings 'Bb', 'C', and 'F' are placed above the treble staff.

I praise you, O God, with all my heart;
before the gods I will sing your praises.

I bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your name for your love and faithfulness;
for you have exalted your name
and your word above everything.

On the day that I called, you answered me,
and put new strength in my soul. R

All earth's rulers shall praise you,
when they hear the words of your mouth.

They shall sing of your ways, O God,
sing that your glory is great.
For though you are high, you care for the lowly.
As for the proud, you humble them from afar. R

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve me;
you stretch out your hand against my enemies' rage;
your powerful hand delivers me.

You will fulfil your purpose for me.
Your love, O God, is eternal.
Do not leave unfinished the work of your hands. R

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

A Reading from the first Letter to the Corinthians.

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you-unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them-though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 5:1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Our Response to the Word

Hearing the Call of Christ

One: We hear the call of Jesus to the disciples and we hear the call to each of us,

All: a call to think deeply about our future.

One: The call comes to each of us,

All: a call to consider our friendships and relationships.

One: The call comes to each of us,

All: a call to dream of God's purpose with us, and for us.

One: The call comes to each of us,

All: a call to share in faith community.

One: The call comes to each of us,

All: a call to ask what we can do to advance the mission of Jesus Christ.

One: The call comes to each of us,

All: a call to find a cause in our local community and to support it wholeheartedly.

One: Have you heard the call? How will you respond?

All: Amen.

Prayers of the People

Please feel free to sit or stand - however you are most comfortable to pray.

*Prayers are offered for the church, all in authority, the world,
the local community, those in need, and the departed.*

Let us pray to the most Blessed Trinity, saying "Gracious God, hear our prayer."

We pray for the Church.

May each person feel called by name,
and feel that they have a unique part to play in God's plan.

Gracious God,

hear our prayer.

We pray for the church throughout the world...

We pray for our community of Holy Trinity Guildwood...
We ask God to work through each of us,
and should we feel sometimes the work is beyond our capability,
may God's strength show itself in our weakness,
and God's love be known in the support and encouragement
we receive from those around us.

Gracious God,
hear our prayer.

We ask God to bless all who preach and teach the gospel.
May they lead others to faith in Christ.

Gracious God,
hear our prayer.

We pray for the sick and those in need...
May they be strengthened and upheld by God.

Gracious God,
hear our prayer.

We pray for our World...
We pray for people who feel that their efforts are in vain,
and for people who keep on trusting without seeing any results.

Gracious God,
hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have died...
May they rest in the love and light of God and sing for ever of God's glory.

Gracious God,
hear our prayer.

In these and all our prayers,
we thank you God for your faithfulness and love,
which you have pledged to us through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

For the Nation

Almighty God, you have given us this good land as our heritage. May we prove ourselves a people mindful of your generosity and glad to do your will. Bless our land with honest industry, truthful education, and an honourable way of life. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance; and from every evil course of action. Make us who came from many nations with many different languages a united people. Defend our liberties and give those whom we have entrusted with the authority of government the spirit of wisdom, that there may be justice and peace in our land. When times are prosperous, let our hearts be thankful; and, in troubled times, do not let our trust in you fail. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
