Welcome to Holy Trinity, Guildwood

At Holy Trinity, Guildwood, we welcome all who come to worship with us. Though we are people of diverse background, lifestyle, and opinion, we are one in our desire to follow Jesus Christ. We seek to live as diversity in unity, offering a community in which we can all grow together as one Body: God's Church. We hope the order of service will help you find your way, but feel free to ask your neighbour for help. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us.

Holy Communion: All are welcome in this church and at this altar. All baptized persons, including children, are invited to receive the bread and wine at Christ's table.

Those not receiving communion may wish to receive a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate you are not receiving communion. The Anglican Church supports the ancient use of the common cup. Those receiving the chalice are asked to assist the chalice bearer by grasping the cup at the base and guiding the cup to their lips. For health purposes the practice of intinction, dipping the bread into the wine, is discouraged. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please feel free to receive the bread only. Simply cross your hands over your chest when the chalice bearer passes by to indicate you do not wish the wine. The ancient teaching is that the whole Christ is received whether one receives only the consecrated bread or both bread and wine. Please come forward (should you wish) to the altar rail, at the indication of the sides person (usher) to fill the altar rail from the outside in. Those with mobility concerns may also receive Holy Communion while remaining in place, please notify a sides person (usher).

Children are always welcome at Holy Trinity - On Sundays, children are invited to take part in the wonderful age-appropriate activities offered by Church School downstairs in the church hall during the Liturgy of the Word, after which they return upstairs to join in the Celebration of the Eucharist. Parents are always welcome to join their children for some or all of the time downstairs. For more information contact Melanie McLeod, Family Ministry Coordinator, at 416-261-9503 or melanie.mcleod777@outlook.com. Children are always welcome to join in the fun and adventure of growing in Christ.

As you are invited to stand or sit, please feel free to do as best fits your health, comfort, and circumstances.

Please silence your cell phones.

Welcome

Land Acknowledgment

Lay Assistant Today we honour and acknowledge that this land and locality are on the historical traditional lands of the Indigenous Peoples of what we call Turtle Island and what is commonly called North America.

We acknowledge the leadership of Indigenous Elders, who continue to teach us about what it means to live in a balanced and good way with all creation. May our time of worship together be blessed, as we give respect to the First Peoples of this land and seek to live in right relationship with ourselves, Creator, and one another.

We pray that the Spirit will lead us into all truth, into repentance for the wrongs of the past and into true reconciliation with our Indigenous brothers and sisters that we may be partners in healing and peace, to the glory and thanksgiving of God our Creator.

(National Indigenous Archbishop Chris Harper)

Greeting

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

All And also with you.

Presider Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.
People His mercy endures forever.

Invitation to Confession

Confession lets us set down the heavy things we carry with us, putting us in right relationship with one another and with God.

Presider Dear friends in Christ,
as we prepare for the Paschal Feast,
continuing in the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers,

let us make ready our hearts to renew the covenant of our baptism, as we come before our Creator and Redeemer.

Please kneel (or sit) as you are able.

Kyrie Eleison

MASS OF THE LAMB

Cantor: Kyrie, eleison. All: Kyrie, eleison.

Cantor: Christe, eleison. All: Christe, eleison.

Cantor: Kyrie, eleison. All: Kyrie, eleison.

Contributor: Francis Patrick O'Brien. Tune: © 2018, GIA Publications, Inc. Used with permission under One License.net #A-716522.

Presider Let us ask God to bring to light the things now hidden in darkness, and to disclose to us the secret purposes of our hearts.

Silence is kept

Presider How faithfully have we continued in the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People Lord, have mercy, and complete your work in us.

Presider How faithfully have we persevered in resisting evil, and whenever we fell into sin, repented and returned to the Lord?

People Lord, have mercy, and complete your work in us.

Presider How faithfully have we proclaimed by word and example the good news of God in Christ?

People Lord, have mercy, and complete your work in us.

Presider How faithfully have we sought and served Christ in all persons, loving our neighbours as ourselves?

People Lord, have mercy, and complete your work in us.

Presider How faithfully have we striven for justice and peace among all people, respecting the dignity of every human being?

People Lord, have mercy, and complete your work in us.

Presider How faithfully have we striven to safeguard the integrity of God's creation, respecting, sustaining and renewing the life of the earth?

All Lord, have mercy, and complete your work in us.

Absolution

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect of the Day please remain kneeling (or seated).

Presider God of compassion, you welcome the wayward,
And you embrace us all with your mercy.
By our baptism clothe us with garments of grace, and feed us at the table of your love, through Jesus Christ,
our Saviour and Lord,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

Proclamation of the Word Please sit for the readings.

First Reading

Joshua 5:9-12

A Reading from the Book of Joshua.

The Lord said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away from you the disgrace of Egypt." And so that place is called Gilgal to this day. While the Israelites were camped in Gilgal they kept the passover in the evening on the fourteenth day of the month in the plains of Jericho. On the day after the passover, on that very day, they ate the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain. The manna ceased on the day they ate the produce of the land, and the Israelites no longer had manna; they ate the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

A Reading from the Second Letter to the Corinthians.

From now on, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

The Holy Gospel Please Stand Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them." So he told them this parable: "There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and travelled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So, he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands."' So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe -- the best one -- and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate. Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.' Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him! Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.'"

Sermon

The Rev. Canon Stephen Kirkegaard

Silence for reflection

Our Response to the Word

The Apostles' Creed

p. 189

Prayers of the People

Please feel free to kneel, sit or stand - however you are most comfortable to pray.

Prayers are offered for the church, all in authority, the world, the local community, those in need, and the departed.

Lord, we pray to you because we believe – we believe that we can begin again;
we believe you can make us a new creation. We pray to you, God of new beginnings, saying, "Lord, hear our prayer."

May the church be a place of welcome; may it be like the father of the prodigal son, its arms open in welcoming embrace.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the young people of our community for families where somebody has gone away or lost contact, or where parents and children are estranged.

Lord, hear our prayer.

May Lent arouse a feeling of renewal in our hearts –
a feeling of being brought back to life; the start of a new existence.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all seeking healing in body, mind or spirit especially ...
Let your blessing be upon them.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all who have died... May they look towards the Lord and be radiant.
Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world...
for all those working for the restoration of justice and peace.
and the reconciliation of the family of nations.
Lord, hear our prayer.

We give thanks for our church family of Holy Trinity, Guildwood especially...
We pray for the church throughout the world...
In this time of grace, may many people be reconciled with God.
and with each other and start on a new path, with hope in their hearts.
Lord, hear our prayer.

For the Nation

Almighty God, you have given us this good land as our heritage. May we prove ourselves a people mindful of your generosity and glad to do your will. Bless our land with honest industry, truthful education, and an honourable way of life. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance; and from every evil course of action. Make us who came from many nations with many different languages a united people. Defend our liberties and give those whom we have entrusted with the authority of government the spirit of wisdom, that there may be justice and peace in our land. When times are prosperous, let our hearts be thankful; and, in troubled times, do not let our trust in you fail. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Peace please stand

Presider The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

We greet one another in the Peace of Christ

Resisting the Temptation of the Powers

Our Lenten Study for 2025 is an exploration of the Gospel Story (Luke 4:1 -13) of Jesus' Temptation in the Wilderness. The Rev. Dr. Jesse Zink will be our Guide. He is the principal of Montreal Diocesan Theological College, which is affiliated with McGill University and serves both the Anglican and United churches. His insightful and recent presentations on this theme to the College of Bishops and Diocesan Clergy got rave reviews from all.

You're invited to gather at the Rectory, Canon Stephen's home, at 60 Regency Square on alternate Wednesdays from 2 – 3:30 p.m.

All are welcome including friends and newcomers.

April 2 – The Temptation of More

April 16 – The Temptation of Ease

If you are looking for a ride to Stephen's home, please give the Parish Office a call.

Each session will feature a short video presentation from Dr. Zink, and a time for reflection and discussion over some light refreshments.

Dr. Zink observes: "It feels like an overwhelming time to be alive and to be following Jesus. The headlines are full of what seems like a never-ending litany of disaster, decay and crisis, while the church is wrestling with declining numbers and challenging structural change. Amid all of this, there endures the Christian gospel that remains as deeply and profoundly good and excitingly and disturbingly new now as it was when it was first incarnated and preached in Galilee 2,000 years ago."

If you have a moment, it would be appreciated if you could let Stephen know you're coming (647-822-9503 or stephenkirkegaard@icloud.com), as it makes arranging hospitality a little easier when you know how many guests are coming.
