Welcome to Holy Trinity, Guildwood

At Holy Trinity, Guildwood, we welcome all who come to worship with us. Though we are people of diverse background, lifestyle, and opinion, we are one in our desire to follow Jesus Christ. We seek to live as diversity in unity, offering a community in which we can all grow together as one Body: God's Church. We hope the order of service will help you find your way, but feel free to ask your neighbour for help. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us.

Holy Communion: All are welcome in this church and at this altar. All baptized persons, including children, are invited to receive the bread and wine at Christ's table. Those not receiving communion may wish to receive a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to indicate you are not receiving communion. The Anglican Church supports the ancient use of the common cup. Those receiving the chalice are asked to assist the chalice bearer by grasping the cup at the base and guiding the cup to their lips. For health purposes the practice of intinction, dipping the bread into the wine, is discouraged. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please feel free to receive the bread only. Simply cross your hands over your chest when the chalice bearer passes by to indicate you do not wish the wine. The ancient teaching is that the whole Christ is received whether one receives only the consecrated bread or both bread and wine. Please come forward (should you wish) to the altar rail, at the indication of the sides person (usher) to fill the altar rail from the outside in. Those with mobility concerns may also receive Holy Communion while remaining in place, please notify a sides person (usher).

Children are always welcome at Holy Trinity - On Sundays, children are invited to take part in the wonderful age-appropriate activities offered by Church School downstairs in the church hall during the Liturgy of the Word, after which they return upstairs to join in the Celebration of the Eucharist. Parents are always welcome to join their children for some or all of the time downstairs. For more information please contact Melanie McLeod, Family Ministry Coordinator, at 416-261-9503 or familyministry@trinityguildwood.org. Children are always welcome to join in the fun and adventure of growing in Christ.

As you are invited to stand or sit, please feel free to do as best fits your health, comfort, and circumstances. Please silence your cellphones.

Welcome

Land Acknowledgment

Lay Assistant Today we honour and acknowledge that this land and locality are on the historical traditional lands of the Indigenous Peoples of what we call Turtle Island and what is commonly called North America.

We acknowledge the leadership of Indigenous Elders, who continue to teach us about what it means to live in a balanced and good way with all creation. May our time of worship together be blessed, as we give respect to the First Peoples of this land and seek to live in right relationship with ourselves, Creator, and one another.

We pray that the Spirit will lead us into all truth, into repentance for the wrongs of the past and into true reconciliation with our Indigenous brothers and sisters that we may be partners in healing and peace, to the glory and thanksgiving of God our Creator.

(National Indigenous Archbishop Chris Harper)

Gathering Prayer (The Collect of the Day) please remain standing

The Proclamation of the Word please sit for the readings

The First Reading Revelation 7:9-17
A reading from the book of Revelation.
After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen." Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."
Reader Listen for the leading of the Spirit.
All Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34: 1:10, 22 Please remain seated.
Refrain 1: Instrumental 2: Choir 3: Congregation.

I will bless God at all times,
God's praise will continually be in my mouth.
My Soul will glory in God,
the humble will hear and be glad.
O magnify God with me,
let us exalt God's name together.
I sought God, who answered me,
And freed me from all my fears.

Look to the Most High, and let your light shine,
and your faces will not be ashamed.

This poor soul cried out and God heard,
and saved me from all my troubles. Refrain.

Your angel, O God, keeps guard over those who fear you and delivers them.

Taste and see that our God is good.
Happy are those who take refuge in God

Fear God, you who are the saints, for those who fear God lack nothing.

Strong lions suffer want and go hungry,
But those who seek God lack no good thing. Refrain

But you, God, redeem the life of your servants;

none who take refuge in you are condemned. Refrain.

Second Reading 1 John 3:1-3

A reading from the first letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Reader Listen for the leading of the Spirit.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Confession

Confession lets us set down the heavy things we carry with us,
Putting us in right relationship with one another and with God.

Leader Dear friends in Christ,
God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
God welcomes us sinners
and invites us to God's table.
Let us confess our sins,
Confident in God's forgiveness.
[silence]

All O God, you have given us many people,
women, men, and children, to support us,
care for us, and pray for us.
In them we see you.

Forgive us when we forget that all who belong to you are your saints.
Teach us to see you in everyone we meet,
and help us to reflect your love in all we do. Amen.

Communion Hymn - For All The Saints Who've Shown Your Love O WALY, WALY

1. For all the saints
who've shown your love
in how they live and where they move.
For mindful women, caring men, accept our gratitude again.

2. For all the saints
who loved your name,
whose faith increased the Saviour's fame,
who sang your songs
and shared your word, accept our gratitude, good Lord.

3. For all the saints
who named your will,
and showed the kingdom coming still,
through selfless protest,
prayer and praise,
accept the gratitude we raise.

4. Bless all whose will or name or love reflects the grace of heav'n above.
Though unacclaimed by earthly pow'rs,
Your life through theirs
has hallowed ours.
